

Volcano Stamps of the World

VOLCANIC PLUGS

Glasshouse Mountains, Qld, Australia

A volcanic plug occurs when molten lava cools in the vent of a volcano, then the volcano erodes away around it, leaving only the central plug.

Image: Viktor Pesnov